The 1st Reading - 1 Corinthians 1:18-25

¹⁸The message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹For it is written, 'I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart.' ²⁰Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? ²¹For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. ²²For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, ²³but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling-block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, ²⁴but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

The 2nd Reading - Luke 5:1-11

¹While Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, ²he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. ³He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. ⁴When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, 'Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.' ⁵Simon answered, 'Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.' ⁶When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. ⁷So they signalled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, 'Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!' ⁹For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; ¹⁰and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.' ¹¹When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed Jesus.

Today/s Psalms (Evensong) - 144

BLESSED be the / Lord my / strength : who teacheth my hands to war / and my / fingers to / fight;
My hope and my fortress, my castle and deliverer, my defender in / whom I / trust : who subdueth my / people / that is / under me.

Lord what is man, that thou hast such respect / unto / him : or the son of man, that thou / so re/gardest / him?

Man is like a / thing of / nought: his time / passeth a/ way like a / shadow.

Bow thy heavens O Lord / and come / down : touch the / mountains and / they shall / smoke.

Cast forth thy / lightning and / tear them : shoot out thine / arrows / and con/sume them.

Send down thine hand / from a/bove : deliver me and take me out of the great waters, from the / hand of / strange / children;

Whose mouth / talketh of / vanity : and their right hand / is a right / hand of / wickedness.

I will sing a new song unto / thee O / God: and sing praises unto thee up/on a / ten-stringed / lute.

Thou hast given victory / unto / kings : and hast delivered David thy servant from the / peril / of the / sword.

Save me and deliver me from the hand of / strange / children : whose mouth talketh of vanity, and their right hand / is a right / hand of in/iquity.

That our sons may grow up as the / young / plants : and that our daughters may be as the polished / corners / of the / temple.

That our garners may be full and plenteous, with all / manner of / store : that our sheep may bring forth thousands, and ten / thousands / in our / streets.

That our oxen may be strong to labour, that there be / no de/cay : no leading into captivity, and no com/plaining / in our / streets.

Happy are the people that are in / such a / case : yea blessed are the people who have the / Lord for / their / God.

This Week @ St. Wilfrid's

Greetings to everybody joining us for worship today, we particularly welcome the family of Henry Hoyle who will be joining the Church through baptism at our 10.00 a.m. service.

The Harvest flowers are due to be removed either after our evening service today or tomorrow morning. Thank you for your beautiful work.

The October magazine is available at a cost of 50p.

Future Events

St. Wilfrid's is holding a Christmas Tree Festival at the end of November and start of December. All local businesses and voluntary organisations are invited to take part, please speak to Bridget Knight or the Rector for more information.

There will be a Cellidh on the 7th February in aid of St. Wilfrid's new heating system. More information available nearer the time but please put the date in your diary.

Please remember in your prayers those who have died recently: Neville Barker, Robert Cummings, David Moore, Audrey Liddle, Roger Adamson and Sue Smith.
