

The 10th Sunday after Trinity

The 1st Reading - Romans 10.5-15

⁵ Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that "the person who does these things will live by them." ⁶ But the righteousness that comes from faith says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' " (that is, to bring Christ down) ⁷ "or 'Who will descend into the abyss?' " (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). ⁸ But what does it say? (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim), ⁹ because if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

¹⁰ For one believes with the heart, leading to righteousness, and one confesses with the mouth, leading to salvation. ¹¹ The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." ¹² For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. ¹³ For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

¹⁴ But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? ¹⁵ And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

The 2nd Reading - Matthew 14.22-33

²² Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. ²³ And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone,

²⁴ but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. ²⁵ And early in the morning he came walking towards them on the lake. ²⁶ But when the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified, saying, 'It is a ghost!' And they cried out in fear.

²⁷ But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, 'Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.'

²⁸ Peter answered him, 'Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.' ²⁹ He said, 'Come.' So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came towards Jesus. ³⁰ But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, 'Lord, save me!'

³¹ Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, 'You of little faith, why did you doubt?' ³² When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. ³³ And those in the boat worshipped him, saying, 'Truly you are the Son of God.'

Today's Psalms (Evensong) - 85.8-13

Shew us thy / mercy O / Lord : and / grant us / thy sal/vation.

I will hearken what the Lord God will / say con/cerning me : for he shall speak peace unto his people and to his saints, / that they / turn not a/gain.

For his salvation is nigh / them that / fear him : that / glory may / dwell in our / land.

Mercy and truth are / met to/gether : righteousness and / peace have / kissed each / other.

Truth shall flourish / out of the / earth : and righteousness hath / look-ed / down from / heaven.

Yea the Lord shall shew / loving /-kindness : and our / land shall / give her / increase.

Righteousness shall / go be/fore him : and he shall direct his / going / in the / way.

This Week @ St. Wilfrid's

Welcome to worship today.

At our 8.30 a.m. services we welcome the Rev. Jane Parry who will be leading us in worship. John will be leading us for the Family Service and Evensong.

It is with great sadness that we learned of the death of Sue Barker last Monday. She was a very long-time member of our church family and will be sadly missed. Please pray for those who mourn her loss at this sad time.

This morning the PCC would like to give the congregation the opportunity to talk face to face about the vacancy. So after the 10.00 service please stay for coffee and a chat when we will be there to listen and note your questions.

Please remember in your prayers those who have died recently: Sue Barker, Jennifer Turner and Betty Eland
