OUR APPROACH

- Endeavour to ensure we have parental consent for images of children & young persons
- Whenever possible we will focus on the activity rather than the individual
- Ensure that all featured in the photographs are appropriately dressed
- Manage recorded images responsibly

POLICY STATEMENT

‘As an aspect of the celebration of faith, personal achievement and evangelisation it is our practice to take and display photographs of children on noticeboards, in parish newsletters and magazines.’

For all recognised youth activities within this church we will have sought parental consent to use a photograph of a child or young person for such use.

During such times as family worship it is not always possible to seek prior permission. Therefore the assumption will be one of implied consent. If you wish to opt out of accepting this approach please bring the matter to the attention of the pastoral team.
